Ike Pleads for Settlement in Steel Wage Talks

PLAN EFFORT TO OVERRIDE HOUSING BILL

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower insisted today he is not trying to govern by veto.

Eisenhower told his news conference in response to general questions — with his rejection of the housing bill in the background — that he has not used the veto lightly. He said he doesn't enjoy saying any legislation is bad and then having to explain to the people why he thinks it is bad.

"It was supposed to be veto-proof when we sent it to him, but the proofing didn't work very well," Douglas told a reporter. "We would have done better to send him a stronger bill, to make the issue clear."

The $1,375,000,000 bill Eisenhower rejected Tuesday was cut down from larger programs passed separately by the House and Senate. But most of the cut was accomplished by limiting it to two years, leaving the annual spending rate much higher than Eisenhower asked.

Douglas and Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.), both advocates of broad housing legislation, said they hoped the Senate leadership would call for a vote on overriding the veto even if the effort fails short of the necessary two-thirds.

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.), the Republican whip, said in a separate interview he did not think there would be such a test.

"I'm sure they don't have the votes to override," he said. "All they could do would be to put some Republicans from certain states on the spot and to try to win a political advantage."

In the House, Chairman Albert Rains (D-Ale.) of the Housing subcommittee said he would attempt to have the veto overridden. But most House leaders were waiting to see what action the Senate might take.

Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.), although vigorously assailing the veto, hasn't indicated what course he (Turn to Page Sixteen)

Khrush Calls Friendship Between U. S. and Russia "The Key to World Peace"

By MORRIS W. ROSENBERG
MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev told seven American governors Tuesday that friendship between the United States and the Soviet Union is the key to world peace.

Khrushchev said the Soviet Union "wants peace with all nations, but above all with the biggest and strongest — the United States of America."

"If there is friendship between us, there can never be war," the Soviet Premier declared in a 3-hour and 45-minute talk in the Kremlin with the U. S. state executives touring the Soviet Union.

Khrushchev said if another nation started a war, the Soviet Union and the United States together could halt it.

"But if the United States and the Soviet Union are ever in a conflict," he continued, "the result would be terrible calamity, because if we fight, no force on earth could ever halt us."

Later in the talk, Khrushchev stood fast on Soviet demands for Germany and Berlin which the Western Allies have repeatedly rejected. He said both West and East Germany should be recognized and normal relations established, and that West Berlin (Turn to Page Sixteen)

Commander of Cuban Air Force Lands at Miami

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Immigration Director Edward P. Ahrens today announced Maj. Pedro Luis Diaz Lanz, resigned commander of the Cuban Air Force, has been admitted to the United States as a resident alien.

Ahrens issued this statement: "Major Diaz Lanz, accompanied by his wife, applied for admission to the United States on July 1, 1959, at Miami, Fla., at which port they had arrived directly from Cuba aboard a small private boat."

"Following examinations yesterday, he has been admitted as a resident alien and she has been paroled. He has requested that his whereabouts not be revealed at this time."

Ahrens would make no further comment. He declined to give any hint as to Diaz' whereabouts.

The former Cuban military leader has been accused by his successor, Maj. Juan Almeida, of desertion, treason, robbery and dealing with members of ex-dictator Fulgencio Batista's regime.

Vaccination With Live Virus Deemed Unwise

NEW YORK (AP)—Mass vaccination with live virus polio vaccine is unwise at the present time, a group of experts has reported.

The vaccine advisory committee of the National Foundation recommended Tuesday that the Salk vaccine, which uses viruses already killed, be continued as the major weapon against polio.

The committee reported that the live virus vaccine requires further field trials.

Harriman Describes Khrush As Being Worse Than Stalin

NEW YORK (AP)—W. Averell Harriman describes his recent talks with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev as "terrifying, shocking, worse than Stalin."

His account is carried in the current issue of Life magazine. The quotation, according to Life, was contained in Harriman's report to Washington.

Harriman is a former New York governor and a former ambassador to Moscow.

In his signed article in the magazine, Harriman says Khrushchev told him, in "blunt and brutal language" that:

"Your generals talk of maintaining your position in Berlin with force. That is bluff. If you send in tanks, they will burn, and make no mistake about it. If you want war, you can have it, but

Secretary At Reformatory Kidnap Victim

BULLETIN
GRAFTON, W. Va. (AP)—Three teen-age reformatory inmates were held for grand jury action on charges of kidnaping a young secretary during a short-lived escape attempt.

NEW MARTINSVILLE, W. Va. (AP)—Three teen-age reformatory inmates, charged with kidnaping a young secretary and threatening to kill her if she resisted, get preliminary hearings today.

The trio took Sandra Lynne McKee, 18, for an 80-mile ride Tuesday but were captured less than five hours after their escape, as they tried to get food and money for a trip to Florida. Miss McKee was not harmed.

Larry Anthony Rector and Roger Lee Morse, both 16, and Patrick Jarrell, 17, were charged with kidnaping and grand larceny. The reformatory superintendent, Richard L. Young, said they would be given preliminary hearings before Magistrate W. C. Lawson.

The trio escaped from the State Industrial School for Boys at Pruntytown, near Grafton in north-central West Virginia. They were captured 10 miles south of this Ohio River town by Sheriff Shannon W. Westerman and other officers because Westerman thought to go to Rector's old neighborhood, where his mother still lives.

Miss McKee is a plain-looking girl with straight blonde hair and glasses. Young and law officers said she told them it was her custom to take a drive after having (Turn to Page Sixteen)

Air Force Plans To Move Bombers Off French Bases

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
PARIS (AP)—Three fighter-bomber wings of the U. S. Air Force will soon be moved from French bases to fields in Britain and West Germany, the United States announced today.

U. S. Ambassador to NATO W. Randolph Burgess made the decision known at a meeting of the North Atlantic Council.

The move had been generally expected because President Charles de Gaulle will not agree to storing U. S. atomic arms on French soil.

The transfer will involve 200 jet fighter-bombers which have been assigned atomic missions in case of war. The move is to be started immediately and will be completed before the end of the summer. The jets are based along the French-German frontier.

In the American view the French refusal to allow atomic stockpiles had made it impossible for the planes to fulfill their mission from French bases.

Dam Appropriation Is Considered Today

Times-Mirror was advised early this afternoon that Senate Appropriations Committee in Washington would meet at 1:30 p.m. today. Nothing further on Kinzua Dam appropriation was expected until after the session ends. Time was uncertain, but Associated Press said it would probably be too late for today's publication. The committee is expected to turn down a House restriction against spending $1,400,000 to continue construction on the Kinzua Dam on the Allegheny River above Warren.

Chessman To Learn "New Date With Death"

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Caryl Chessman returns soon to Los Angeles to hear his new date with death.

The appointment for his seventh execution date was set up Tuesday when the California Supreme Court upheld two death sentences imposed on the convict-author 11 years ago.

The court unanimously rejected the 32-year-old San Quentin Prisoner's contention the transcript of his Los Angeles trial in May 1948, was faulty.

Lad Drowns During Swimming Stunt

SEATTLE (AP)—A boy who leaped into the Lake Washington Ship Canal with his hands and feet tied in what was to be a demonstration of his swimming prowess drowned Tuesday night.

Robert Waugh, 15, told two companions to tie his hands and feet and he would untie himself while under the water. With his hands and feet tied he jumped into the water. He didn't come up.

FOREIGN AID BILL FACING LAST HURDLE

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower hunted broadly today he might call a special session of Congress if he is denied the authority he wants for foreign aid spending.

Eisenhower was asked at his news conference for comment on the Senate's action in voting to cut his mutual assistance request by 38 1/2 million dollars.

The President was rebuffed twice Tuesday as the Senate voted cuts in the amounts Eisenhower asked both for military aid and for economic help to arms pact allies which supply large numbers of armed forces.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) said he would seek roll call votes on other amendments to cut funds in the program.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) the majority leader, said he hoped to get final passage of the whittled-down measure during the day.

The Senate voted 52-41 to cut 300 million dollars from the $1,600,000,000 Eisenhower asked for arms aid to America's free world allies.

Then it adopted by a vote of 49-43 a second amendment slashing 83 1/2 millions from the $35 million Eisenhower said was essential for economic defense supports for armed allies this year.

But Eisenhower won a possible victory for the future on a 56-37 vote to provide permanent authorization for future military aid funds instead of the year-to-year action now required. The actual money requests then would go to congressional appropriations committees.

Eisenhower had asked such a change. The Senate approved a similar provision two years ago, but the House rejected it. House acceptance would be needed if (Turn to Page Sixteen)

Saulte Ste. Marie Agog Over Visit of Queen

SAULTE STE. MARIE, Ont. (AP)—This Canadian steel center and river port was at a fever today over its first visit from a reigning monarch of the United Kingdom.

Elizabeth II of England and Prince Philip, the most prominent tourists in North America this summer, were scheduled to spend about four hours here en route to Fort Arthur, Ont.

It was their first stop after a rousing welcome Monday at Chicago.

The visit brought them to another point of close United States-Canadian ties. Saulte Ste. Marie's twin-towered U. S. city lies across the St. Mary's River in Michigan.

The busy river is a highway for Great Lakes vessels carried by locks between Lake Superior and Lake Huron.

Butler Fire

BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—Flames destroyed a two-story home between Conoquenessing and Prospect early today with a loss estimated at $50,000.

A. M. Jones, owner of the home, suffered an injury to his back in leaping from a second-story window. His wife was not hurt.

Fire Chief Claude Skinner, who estimated the loss blamed defective wiring. Skinner said the house was furnished with antiques.

SUGGESTS CONTINUANCE OF NEGOTIATIONS UNTIL AGREEMENT IS REACHED

BULLETIN
NEW YORK (AP)—The Steelworkers Union today rejected President Eisenhower's renewed request for an indefinite extension of steel contracts beyond their scheduled expiration at midnight July 14.

Temperatures Will Stay Near Normal

The Associated Press Extended forecast for the period Thursday, July 8 through Monday July 13: Western Pennsylvania: Temperatures will average near normal. Warmer Thursday and Friday. Cooler Saturday and Sunday, followed by somewhat warmer on Monday. Showers about Friday will total 1/4 to 3/4 of an inch.

AID OF NIXON SOUGHT BY UNION CHIEF

By NORMAN WALKER
NEW YORK (AP)—The Steelworkers Union has appealed to Vice President Richard M. Nixon for help in getting a wage boost and other contract benefits from the industry.

Union President David J. McDonald presented the plea personally to Nixon, an avowed foe of inflation.

McDonald said he went to Pittsburgh and sought out Nixon to complain that the steel companies were "provoking a shutdown" by balking at offering any contract gains.

The union chief declined to tell newsmen what Nixon's reaction was. He said only that he supposed Nixon reported to President Eisenhower on the conference.

Battle Shapes Up For Control Of Dem. Convention

By GEOFFREY GOULD
WASHINGTON (AP)—A battle that could turn into a war is shaping up for control of the 1960 Democratic convention and what kind of presidential candidate it will nominate.

On one side is National Chairman Paul M. Butler, a spokesman for forces usually called Northern and Western liberals.

On the other side are conservative and moderate forces in Congress who look for leadership to Senate Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) and House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.).

These Johnson-Rayburn forces say Butler's increasing criticism of the kind of leadership they are providing in Congress is a tipoff that he is trying to force them out of policy making posts in the convention. (Turn to Page Sixteen)

Michigan Governor Declares Kozlov "Shrewd and Tough"

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan's Gov. G. Mennen Williams says Soviet First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov is shrewd and tough and it will take a Yankee trader to beat him.

Williams made the appraisal Tuesday night after what he called a "knock down and drag out" verbal fight with Kozlov.

The six-term Democratic governor, who has the backing of his state party for the presidential nomination in 1960, appeared to feel he had the better of his sparring with Kozlov as he described it to a news conference.

Kozlov leaves today for a three-day visit in Chicago.

For an hour Williams and Kozlov had a private conference in a Detroit hotel room following Kozlov's tour of industrial Detroit. Williams said he fired a series of written questions at the deputy premier. Then he said they argued through their own interpreters and at one point Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov got worried and intervened.

Williams said Kozlov flared up at a question of self-determination and free elections for the Soviet Union's European satellites.

Williams said Kozlov argued that the people of East Germany and other Soviet satellites had made their choice and that anything to the contrary was propaganda.

The governor said he told Kozlov that Soviet tanks ruthlessly put down a revolt in East Germany six years ago.

"I pointed out that Poland, one of the most Catholic countries in the world, had been deprived of freedom of religion," Williams said.

TV Association Holds Convention in Philadelphia

Bill Loucks, (Warren Television Corporation), local member of the National Community Television Association, reported today that A. J. Malin of Louisiana, New Hampshire, was elected NCTA president at the 8th annual NCTA convention in Philadelphia.

Malin, an NCTA charter member, served as the trade association's secretary in 1956-57 and vice president in 1958-59. He is president and general manager of the Stratford Broadcasting Corporation which owns and operates Radio Station WWHN in Rochester, New Hampshire.

With headquarters in Washington, D.C., NCTA is the trade association representing 367 community antenna TV systems in 42 states.

Speaking at the convention, Pennsylvania's Governor David L. Lawrence said, "Without community antenna TV systems, many communities in this nation would not have television. Community television is a tremendous force in bringing people closer together and breaking down the barriers of misunderstanding, Governor Lawrence noted.

Loucks said the community antenna industry started in 1949 to serve cities unable to receive TV signals because of mountainous terrain or distance from a TV broadcasting station.

Other national officers elected were: Sanford Randolph, Clarksburg, West Va., vice president; Charles Clements, Water-

TV Men Are In Titusville For Garraway Show

Titusville Herald: William Heaton, producer of the Dave Garraway Show, "Today," and William Patterson, assistant to the producer, are in Titusville in connection with the show.

The NBC television men from New York were at the Drake Well Memorial Park yesterday to make arrangements for the live network telecast from the park on Thursday morning, Aug. 27.

Weather permitting, a crew will start filming at 6:30 a.m. today. The film will be shown during the "Today" show on the 27th as part of the live telecast from the park.

The men yesterday selected the spot for drilling an oil well which will be televised.

The location is on the west side of Oil Creek across from the boulder monument erected by the Canadonta Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The well will be drilled close to the creek bank, so that cameras with telescopic lenses can pick it up from the museum side of the park.

The NBC men also discussed the possibility of taking out the Colonel Drake steamer fire engine on the 27th and have it operate.

John M. Grove, manager of the Pennsylvania Electric Co.'s Titusville district, was on hand at the park yesterday. The television men said a special transformer will be needed because of the increased electrical needs for the TV equipment and for the large banks of lights.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — "I always wanted to make money while I slept," said Hildegarde.
"I did it with my phonograph records—and now I hope to do it with oil wells."
In 1936 Hildy disposed of 85 per cent of her prize collection of modern art and started out to collect oil wells. She now owns an interest in 10 producing wells in Oklahoma.
But "the dear that made Milwaukee famous" is too energetic to sit idly by and let oil wells support her.
After more than 30 years of song belting before kings and butter-and-egg men, she is still a reigning queen of the supper club circuit.
She has long been called "The incomparable," and she still deserves the title. None of the newer lady songbirds has quite her timeless feminine charm, her gay authority over a crowded room. Like Marlene Dietrich, she seems destined to roll along forever.
"I don't want to retire until I get fat—and I never intend to get fat," she says.
Success didn't come easy for the hazel-eyed, blonde singer. She dreamed, as a chubby young girl in Milwaukee, of becoming a concert pianist. She performed in vaudeville and played as an accompanist before she became a solo artist.
In Paris she sang for as little as $1 a night in small cabarets. Later, as a famous radio, recording and supper club star she earned up to $20,000 a week.
"I still practice on the piano and take singing lessons," she said. "You never reach the point where you can't improve yourself or learn something new."
Hildegarde journeyed more than a million miles by car, train and ship before she got over her fear of the airplane. Now she uses the sky lanes.
Hildegarde has a fabulous collection of gowns costing $400 up each, 10 times as many pairs of gloves—she plays the piano with her gloves on—and hundreds of the lacy handkerchiefs she uses in her act. They cost from $25 to $75 apiece.
"You have to live for others as well as yourself if you are to find any happiness. You should try to make this world a better place, not only by religion but by your own behavior," is her philosophy.
"We hear so much about evil. I think we should stress good more—and not be ashamed of good."
Hildegarde has never married. "I've been on the verge many times," she said, "but I'm still a bachelorette—trying to find Mr. Right."
"I wonder if I ever will. Everybody seems married lately."

South Carolina Democrat Asks Butler To Resign

By GEOFFREY GOULD
WASHINGTON (AP)—A Southern Democrat says National Chairman Paul M. Butler may be working to name new officers for the 1960 Democratic convention and to deny seats to some Southern delegates.
Rep. William Jennings Bryan Dorn (D-SC) told the House Monday this belief was prompted by Butler's latest criticism of the Democratic leadership in Congress.
Dorn called for Butler's resignation and hinted the party chairman may be tainted by Republican leanings.
Other Democrats in Congress sprang to the defense of Senate Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) and House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), the obvious targets of Butler's attack.
Republican leaders said nothing, but smiled as they watched the intraparty feud grow.
Butler set things off in a television interview Sunday. He said quite a few Democrats were unhappy about the performance of the Democratic-controlled Congress and that the party will be in a tough situation in the 1960 presidential campaign unless Congress provides a more progressive record.
Dorn said this "lends some truth to recent reports that Mr. Butler is masterminding a plan to oust Mr. Rayburn as permanent chairman of the (1960) convention, to unseat Mr. McCormack (House Democratic leader John W. McCormack of Massachusetts) as chairman of the convention platform committee and to appoint a convention credentials committee which would deny seating to several delegates from southern states."

In a recent Virginia Beach duplicate everyone landed in six spades or six no-trump. Declarer could not get to dummy and had to go down and Allen Haneke of Norfolk wants to know how they could have reached the lay down seven hearts.
The bidding in the box answers his question.
North's two spade bid is the normal forcing two and South's four heart response is designed to show exactly what he holds. A long, strong suit but no ace anywhere and no ace or king outside the heart suit.
North's five no-trump is the so-called grand slam force. It is not a Blackwood bid since South's bid has already said, "Partner, I have no aces."
It asks South to go to seven hearts if he thinks his suit is good enough and obviously it guarantees the ace of hearts and either the ace or void in all other suits.
South knows his partner holds the ace of hearts, his suit is good enough, so he bids seven.

New York Considers Shelters For Schools
ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller will sound out New York's congressional delegation on a proposal for compulsory construction of nuclear bomb shelters in New York State.
A Rockefeller task force recommended Monday that home owners be required to build the shelters as a protection against radio-active fallout in case of nuclear attack.
A shelter would cost from $150, if the home owner built it himself, to $500 for a professional job, the group estimated.
The governor and the state defense council endorsed the plan in principle.
Action by the legislature would be required to carry it out.

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "I know people don't understand it. I don't understand it myself. But we're making it work, and I know we'll get what we want."
This was Shirley MacLaine explaining about her strange marriage to Steve Parker. She has seen him only a few weeks a year since 1956—she won't say how few for fear people will be shocked.
Their careers keep them apart. Shirley is the hottest female star in movies today. Steve has discovered a rich field as producer for films and shows in Japan.
Last year, he brought over the Japanese troupe that made a hit on Dinah Shore's TV show. Now he is importing an extravaganza to play the New Frontier in Las Vegas, and he and Shirley are together for one of their infrequent reunions.

How did they get into such a situation?
"It just happened," she said. "Steve had lived in Japan when he was a boy—he went to all parts of the world with his father. But he liked Japan best. He went back there after the war and found a terrific field. Now he's branching out."

Contractual matters keep her here. She was plucked out of "Pajama Game" for a movie deal with Hal Wallis. All of the films she has made between "Around the World in 80 Days" and the upcoming "Can Can" were under salary. So she hasn't been able to cash in on her current popularity.
"I've got pictures lined up steadily into the spring of 1961," she said. "Then we'll be able to resume our marriage. I'll be independent and able to make my own deals, and Steve will have his situation consolidated. I don't think it's too much for us to be apart for another two years—as long as we can achieve everything we both want by that time."

But she admitted that her friends can't understand how she and Steve live.
"Sure, I'm lonely," she said. "But work helps me to forget about it. The way I've been working, I wouldn't be able to have much of a marriage, anyway."

Sheffield WSCS Entertains for Barnes Members

SHEFFIELD—Barnes WSCS members were guests of First Methodist WSCS for the latter's regular meeting Tuesday afternoon, with 35 persons present for the session conducted by the president, Mrs. M. M. Beer.

Devotions were given by Eva Brown; Mrs. Beer welcomed the guests and the response was given by Mrs. John Burns.

Mrs. Ruth T. Miller, president of the visiting group, had as her topic "Building Christian Character—Youth and Juvenile Delinquency", giving an interesting talk on causes of delinquency and preventive measures.

Mrs. Beer asked members for Betty Crocker coupons, to be used in securing salad forks for the church. It was also decided to redecorate three rooms at the parsonage while the pastor, the Rev. Jack Parsons, and family are on vacation.

At 6:30 p. m. July 30, the congregation will have a reception, with a tureen dinner and pound-package gift, to honor the Parsons family; committees were appointed for the tea to be given August 20 at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Gailor.

Concluding the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. John Ginnelli, Mrs. Wallace Sauter, Mrs. Robert Baynes, Mrs. Bruce Smith, Lucille Baynes and Ruth York.

CLASSIFIED ADS accepted until 11 a. m. on day of publication.

MARY ANN MUSANTE HONORED BY SHOWER

Mrs. Martha Mahood and Mrs. Mary Ellen DiPierro entertained last evening at the home of the latter on Conewango avenue extension, at a miscellaneous shower honoring their niece, Mary Ann Musante, with 35 guests present.

Bridge and "crazy" bingo were enjoyed and a delicious lunch featured individual three-tiered miniature wedding cakes. The table was beautiful with pastel colored favors of little doll bridesmaids, all made by Gladys and Valjean Gilmore.

Out of town guests were Miss Linda Lytle, Erie; Mrs. Bernice James, Rochester; Mrs. Maryalice Moylan, Clarendon, also an aunt of the honored guest; and Mrs. Debbie Scalise, who recently moved back to Warren from Bridgeville.

STONEHAM MEETING

The Stoneham Methodist WSCS will meet at the community house at 1:30 a. m. Thursday and will go from there to Chapman Dam for a picnic. Each one is asked to bring a tureen and table service, the ice cream and coffee to be provided.

EMBERETTES MEET

The Emberettes, Lander 4-H Club, held its regular meeting July 7 at Fred Ludwick's pond, where twists and "smores" were cooked over an open fire. Kathleen Peterson and Cheryl Hotelling were added to the roll to make 20 members. There were also four visitors present.

Next meeting of the group will be held July 28, when each girl is to bring a "billy can" and something to cook in it.

MRS. NORMAN PERRY

At 11:00 a. m. June 27 in Holy Redeemer church, Father Joseph Seybold officiated for a double ring ceremony to unite in marriage two members of Beaty Junior High School faculty, Marie Knapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Knapp, of 348 Interstate Parkway, Bradford, and Norman Perry, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Homer Perry, also of that city.

Alar bouquets of white gladioli formed the setting for the ceremony, with Mrs. Thomas Donnelly at the organ for traditional wedding music.

Wearing ballerina-length white nylon tulle and Alencon lace over satin and carrying a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy sprays, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was styled with short-sleeved lace bodice, delicate embroidery tracing the v-neckline, the very bouffant skirt underlaid with petticoats. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a pillbox accented with seed pearl embroidery.

Mrs. Valrie Murphy of Bradford, who attended her sister as matron of honor, wore a waist-length sheath of Florentine lace over mint green tulle, and a matching picture hat of imported horsehair. Her bouquet was a cascade of yellow roses and ivy.

Completing the bridal party, Robert Fey of Pottsville was best man; ushers were the bride's brother-in-law, Fred Murphy, of Bradford, and the bridegroom's brother, Earl Perry, St. Marys.

After a wedding trip to the New England States, the couple will live at Shipman's Eddy. For travel, the bride chose a beige sheath with pink embroidered jacket, tan accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry are both graduates of Bradford High School, he continuing his education at Edinboro State Teachers' College, she, at Clarion STC.

Hostesses who have honored the bride-elect have been Mrs. Harold Johnson, Marilyn Paschick, Mrs. Fred Murphy, Mrs. Earl Perry, Mrs. Frank Michalski and Mrs. Jerome Perry.

WCTU PICNIC
The family picnic of Central WCTU will be held at 1:00 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Goldie Brownell, Hill street. The program will be charge of Lulu Boyd; devotions will be given by Mrs. Edith Muir; and hostesses will be Mrs. Brownell, Mrs. Carrie Meredith and Ellen Selander. Election of officers for the coming year will highlight the business session.

Gathered From The Party Line

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lannan, Fourth avenue, entertained with another of their annual parents-and-children parties for a delightful Fourth of July picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell, Cleveland, were in town to spend the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fisher, Third avenue.

Schoolmen of the area were sorry to learn that William C. Frantz, of Franklin, died of a heart attack Sunday while out riding in his car. Aged 70, Mr. Frantz retired two years ago as superintendent of schools in Venango county.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Chandler, Cleveland, spent the weekend at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Grace Siggins, Second avenue.

Ted Moll and John Fisher are home from a holiday jaunt reported to have included Florida and Cuba.

The Rev. Elmer E. Rose, minister of First Baptist church in Bradford since December, 1951, has resigned his pastorate to accept a call to the Baptist Temple in Parkersburg, W. Va., newest church in the American Baptist denomination.

Mrs. James I. Wendell is returning to her home in Pottsville after a holiday visit with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Wendell.

Mrs. Thomas Shingleton and infant son, Tom, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gibson, at Hemlock, have left to make their home in Dubu, Ill., where Mr. Shingleton is attending Parks College.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard I. Landon and three children, of Ojai, Calif., are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson, 19 Grant street. They will also be visiting relatives and friends in Rochester, N.Y., where Mr. Landon formerly lived.

Mrs. Simon Confer and three children, Sheryl, Debra and Margy, have arrived from Glendora, Calif., to spend the summer with her mother and sister, Mrs. Martha Lawson and Mrs. Richard Danielson, 11 St. Clair street.

Apologies are extended to Judy Maasz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Maasz of Youngsville, whose name was omitted from last night's Girl Scout Roundup correspondence from Times-Mirror Reporter Barbara Jean Ellis. Judy is one of eight girls representing Warren-Forest Council at the Colorado Springs encampment.

MEETING AT TIONA
Mrs. Maxine Hulings and Mrs. Dorothy Sees will entertain the Tiona Ladies' Aid Society at the former's home at 8:00 p. m. Thursday. Mrs. Hulings will also lead the devotional period and there will be a business session.

MR. AND MRS. ALAN WAYNE STEPHENS

White glads and mums decorated the altar of St. Joseph's church June 27 for the marriage of Mary Antonia Bollinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Bollinger, North Warren, to Alan Wayne Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Stephens of Moorpark, Calif., formerly of Warren.

Father Rocco Tito, assistant pastor, officiated for the double ring ceremony at 11:00 a. m. Mrs. Donald Edinger was at the organ for traditional wedding music and to accompany Richard Smith, who sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother, At Thy Feet is Kneeling".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of chantilly-type lace and tulle over satin, the fitted bodice featuring Saxon sleeves and a sabrina neckline, intricately re-embroidered with seed pearls, the bouffant tulle skirt enhanced by a wide lace panel with handkerchief point scalloping. Her veil of illusion fell fingertip length from a pearl-trimmed bonnet of matching lace, and she carried a white prayer book topped by a white orchid and showered with baby's breath knotted in satin streamers.

Attendants were Judith Ann Peterson and Jacqueline Young, bridesmaids; Suzanne Bollinger, maid of honor; and Nancy Howard, flower girl. Their gowns of white chiffon over tulle were accented with red headpieces and bouquets of red carnations.

Lee Munch served as best man for Mr. Stephens; ushering the VFW clubrooms. Refreshments will follow the business session and a good turnout is urged.

Out of town guests included the Charles T. Stephens family, from California; Al Stephens, Chicago; Eva Tarbox, Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stanton, Olean, N. Y.; the R. T. Beal family, Hadley, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dudley, Jean Hoffman and Virginia Stein, Erie; the Aaron family, of Clarion.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, the bride selected a blue sheath dress and white accessories.

Returning June 29, the newlyweds are at home to friends at 808 1/2 West Fifth avenue. Graduates of Warren High School in 1955 and 1958, respectively, Mr. Stephens is employed by Warren Borough. Mrs. Stephens by New Process Company.

Prior to the wedding, parties were given by Mrs. Mildred Snaburg and Sandra Carlson; Mrs. Shirley Munch.

CHURCH WOMEN MEET
Forty-three members and nine guests of Augustana Lutheran Church Women of St. Paul's Lutheran church gathered at 8:00 p. m. Monday for the regular meeting of the group. Mrs. Carl Nelson based her devotions on the topic "Cooperation."

Shown to the group was a film, "Outposts in the Andes," the story of Lutherans in the South American countries aided through Lutheran World Action. Refreshments were served by the following hostesses: Mrs. Bernard Bloom, Mrs. Elmer Bloom, Mrs. Carl Berglund, Mrs. Allan Berglund, Mrs. Robert Benson and Miss Mildred Anderson.

REMEMINDERS FOR GOLDEN AGE SOCIETY

All Golden Age Society members who have signed up for the trip to Chautauqua on Saturday, for Senior Citizens Day, are asked to be on hand at the TVCA activities building at 8:00 a. m.

For their regular meeting next Monday at 2:00 p. m. at the TVCA, the Golden Ageds will enjoy lunch, followed by a business session and pictures for entertainment.

SPECIAL SERVICE

Announcement is made that another song service will be held at 8:00 p. m. Sunday at the Stilson Hill Community church, near Sugar Grove, and a cordial invitation is extended to all interested.

Every graduation gift you receive requires a note of thanks. Even though you thank the giver in person, it is gracious to also write a note.

interpretation. No doubt the court will be confronted with similar cases, looking for loopholes and clarifications.

In the Nelson case the vote was 6-3 for him; it was 5-1 for Watkins. In the Uphaus case the vote was 5-4 against, and 5-4 against Barenblatt.

In three other contempt conviction cases the nine justices stood solidly together, 9-0, for the defendants.

One involved a labor leader who refused to give a Senate committee investigating communism a list of union members. This decision had no special meaning. The court ruled in his favor on a technicality.

Another was the case of a Virginia Quaker who wouldn't answer a state legislative committee's questions about his connection with inter-racial groups. The court upheld him on the ground the purpose of the committee's investigation was not clear. This was an echo of the Watkins case.

In the third the court freed three Ohioans who, the justices said, had been misled into refusing to answer by a state committee, which was investigating communism and asking the questions.

On a technicality the court split 4-4 in upholding the conviction of a fourth Ohioan—sentenced for refusing to answer questions from the same Ohio committee.

And finally, the court split 5-4 in turning down the appeal of a New York garment maker who refused to answer, although promised immunity, the questions of a grand jury investigating racketeering.

Are Guests for Farewell Picnic

A picnic supper to honor Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and their daughter, Mrs. Margaret Nelson, leaving soon for California, was given Tuesday evening in Crescent Park, with approximately 45 persons present from the Bethel and Baracka Classes of the Nazarene Sunday School.

The pastor, the Rev. John Z. Andree, offered the invocation. Following dinner, the president of Bethel Class, John Trauffer, conducted a brief program. Mrs. Johnson read scripture, with commentary: Mrs. Trauffer read an original script pertaining to the lives of the honored couple in their approximately 40 years in Warren.

Mrs. Preston Taylor read a poem, "He Knoweth Best." The Bethel Class teacher, Mrs. Granger, presented gifts and cash to the honored ones. Mr. Johnson spoke briefly in appreciation. Mrs. Andree led group singing of "God Be With You" and the pastor concluded with fitting remarks and the benediction.

Mrs. Harold Jackson, president of the Baracka Class, headed the refreshments committee.

NAZARENE NOTES

Missionary Society will meet at First Church of the Nazarene this evening, with prayer service at 7:45, the business session at 8:00, and a program to follow. Special emphasis will be "Spanish Broadcast."

MR. AND MRS. PAUL E. LAUFFENBURGER, JR.

Returning from a wedding trip through eastern Pennsylvania, Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Lauffenburger, Jr. are at home to friends on Cobham Park road.

The bride is the former JoAnn Alice Plowright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Plowright of Russell RD 1; the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Lauffenburger, Sr., Cobham Park road. She is employed as a teller at Warren Bank and Trust Company, he is a Pennsylvania Highway Department employee.

The ceremony, at 2:00 p. m. June 20 in First Pilgrim Holiness church of Warren, was performed by the Rev. George D. Snow of Elizabethtown, Pa., former pastor of the local church. Wedding music was provided by Alice Clapper Fox, organist, and Ronald Zerbe, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because." White gladioli and ferns were used in an attractive altar setting.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride was dressed in white lace and tulle and carried a colonial bouquet of white rosebuds, lace and ribbons. Fashioned of lace, the bodice had a sabrina neckline and sleeves were pointed over the hands, while the lace-over-tulle skirt was double tiered. A halo of nylon leaves and petals.

embroidered with seed pearls held her fingertip veil of nylon net.

As maid of honor and only attendant to the bride, Rose Quiggle of Kinzua wore ballerina-length light blue taffeta, with matching headpiece. Her bouquet of white rosebuds was interwoven with blue lace and blue satin ribbons.

Raymond Lauffenburger attended his cousin as best man; ushers were Victor Lauffenburger, John Sechrist, David Reagle and Kingston Lindblom.

Favored with white carnation corsages, the bride's mother wore pink lace over taffeta and the bridegroom's mother, a blue nylon print, each with white accessories.

A reception for 200 guests followed immediately at the Glade township fire hall, where Mildred Plowright, sister of the bride, managed the guest book.

Out of town guests came from Florida; California; Buffalo, Williamsville, Camden, Friendship, Olean, N.Y.; Steubenville, O.; Erie, Ridgway, Sheffield, Putneyville, Youngsville, Kinzua and Scandia.

Pre-nuptial parties were given in the bride's honor by Mrs. Mildred Peterson, Mrs. Warren Moore, Martha Moore. Also fellow bank employees at the home of Rose Quiggle.

matter of FACT

The pecan tree is a strictly North American tree, a member of the hickory family. It occurs as a large native tree near river bottoms in the southern U.S. and Mexico. Pecans have a higher food value than any other nut. With proper care, a pecan tree will bear annually from 100 to 1,000 pounds of nuts. The nuts are dried and cured by spreading them out in layers, four to five inches thick, in a well-ventilated room.

Fashion Editors to Serve As Judges

The panel of fashion judges for the upcoming Second Annual Ribbon Fashions Designers Awards check ballots here as preliminary part of judging. Announcements of winners will be made next October at a luncheon in New York. Judges here are Etsy Talbot Blackwell, editor-in-chief of Mademoiselle; Gaile Dugas, women's editor of Newspaper Enterprise Association and Nancy White, editor-in-chief of Harper's Bazaar. Fourth judge, not shown, is Eugenia Sheppard, women's page editor of the New York Herald Tribune.

By NEA Service

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Preliminary judging is under way to determine which top New York designers made most interesting and imaginative use of ribbon in fashion during 1959. More than 300 fashion editors throughout the country have been pooled to select nominees among designers. Announcements and awards will be made on Oct. 15 when more than 500 persons, including manufacturers and department store executives, gather at New York's Plaza Hotel for the awards luncheon. The panel of four judges includes Gaile Dugas, women's editor of Newspaper Enterprise Association; Etsy Talbot Blackwell, editor of Mademoiselle magazine; Nancy White, editor of Harper's Bazaar, and Eugenia Sheppard, women's editor of the New York Herald Tribune.

Woven-edge ribbon is used by designers as trim or edging, for decorative bows or insets or as an overall material for dresses or dinner suits. Last year's Ribbon Designer Award winners were Karen Stark of Harvey Bern; Anne Klein of Junior Sophisticates; Clare Potter; Adolfo of Emme; Sally Victor of Sally V.; Sylvia Pedlar of Iris and Treo, foundations.

Save Playclothes for After-Work Fun

Most offices become a bit more informal in summer but this doesn't mean that anything goes. Most employers will insist on a degree of formality no matter what the weather.

So keep peasant blouses, flat sandals and a generally fly-away look for country weekends. In the office, you should look neat, efficient and businesslike.

Movies to the contrary, most men are horrified at the very idea of bleached hair, sweaters, T-shirts or still-life heels in a place of business. They much prefer to see a simple cotton or linen suit, stockings by all means are a hairdo that's both simple and smart.

They dislike pounds of jangling junk jewelry, too much make-up and low-necked dresses. They also dislike to comment on the way you dress, so it's up to you to be critical of yourself.

To the teen-ager (or anyone else) with a troublesome skin, summer can be a real blessing.

Because, with your doctor's consent, you'll find that your time in the sun will do more than just relax you. It will go far toward healing your skin. But be sure to get your doctor's consent first.

Skin problems vary so much that what's fine for one case is poison for another. The sun can clear up some skin troubles and bring on others. It can be a powerful aid or powerfully destructive. It can clear up allergies and it can also make them worse.

These are things which you must ask your doctor about before you set out to dry up lumps and bumps and pimples with an hour daily in the sun's healing rays.

The summer months were made to order for the gal who wants to lose weight. Beefsteak, tomatoes, hard boiled eggs, cold cuts, leafy lettuce, cold chicken and salmon all taste delicious in hot weather, and they do melt away the pounds.

Fresh fruits are a delight and a perfect substitute for the gooey desserts of winter. It's the one time when you can have your cake and eat it too in a sense that's almost literal.

The Mature Parent Being Inconsistent May Cause Child's Resentment

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

This morning my husband is especially nice to me. Then a neighbor who drops in tells me I'm looking well. Later I get a letter from my mother saying that the brother-in-law she's always comparing unfavorably with my husband has lost his job.

I feel good. I feel that life isn't treating me so badly after all. So when Terry asks permission to have a friend to supper, I say "Yes." But the day after tomorrow my husband will be cranky. My beauty parlor operator will ask me if I'm putting on weight. My sister will write that her paragon of a husband is going to start his own firm.

I'll feel discouraged about my life. So when Terry asks if he can give a friend some cookies, I'll snap, "No! Do you think I can afford to feed the whole neighborhood?"

I am an inconsistent parent, a parent whose treatment of her child varies with changes in other people's treatment of her. With no direction of my own I swing like a weather vane from optimism to depression according to what other people say or do.

As a result, Terry may not be able to develop any self-direction either. Because my treatment of him is never predictable, he won't be able to trust his own judgment of what I want. He won't be able to say to himself, "My mother allows this but doesn't allow that." And without this confidence he will learn to exploit my changing moods to his own advantage. He'll learn to think, "She's feeling good now so I better get everything I want out of her before she starts feeling different."

To be thus cynically exploited by one's child is not very pleasant. Sometimes a parent whose inconsistency has taught a child to exploit her can become aware of this problem in herself. She may suddenly register something false and overextravagant in the child's gratitude for some favor—and know she dislikes it.

Or she may register the speed with which he gives up a wish—and realize that he's hiding his time until his chances are better. And feel what she may have not known she's been feeling all along: resentment at his exploitation.

This resentment can be the beginning of a healthy resistance to her inconsistency.

HAGG-ERICKSON RITES ANNOUNCED

YOUNGVILLE — Announcement is made of the marriage of Beverly Elaine Erickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Erickson of Irvine Star Route, and Horace Hagg, son of Mrs. Melvin Hagg. The ceremony was performed in the Wesleyan Methodist church on Brown Hill by the Rev. Dean McIntyre of Dayton, Pa., assisted by the Rev. Reed Bennett, Brown Hill.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erickson, the newlyweds receiving many nice gifts.

NURSES' OUTING

A most enjoyable evening was spent recently at the Leonard Haag cottage at Hemlock by the licensed practical nurses. There was a good turnout and a bountiful table was set on the porch overlooking the river. All are looking forward to another outing in August.

Is Waiting for Marriage Really Such a Passe Idea?

I read an article the other day that made me—and I imagine a lot of other parents—fighting mad.

The gist of the article was that expecting young people to wait for marriage until they are self-supporting is an old-fashioned notion. And that parents of today ought to be willing to subsidize young marriages—kicking in so much a month until the young folks finish their educations, get jobs that pay a living wage, or otherwise get their feet on the ground.

Well, that's just ducky for the young people who are free to marry whenever the notion strikes them, secure in the knowledge that good old Dad and Mom will keep a roof over their heads, food in the icebox, and gasoline in the car. But it's putting quite a load on their parents.

The load isn't always just financial, either. If a baby arrives while the young couple are still financially dependent, its care often falls to one of the grandmothers—so that the young wife can continue with her education and later on hold down a job because her young husband's pay check won't support three in the manner to which their parents have accustomed them.

It may be old-fashioned, but the idea that a couple who aren't through school and self-supporting haven't any right to take on the responsibility of marriage still makes sense.

Waiting for marriage gives a couple time to be sure they really were "meant for each other." Marriage becomes a goal to work toward, rather than another gift from indulgent parents.

And last, but by no means least, from the young couple's point of view, financial independence gives them the right to make their own decisions and set their own course.

Two Magazines Devote Space To Oil Centennial

Issues of two magazines, Forbes and New York State Pharmacist, have turned up some interesting and unrelated facts about Colonel Drake and the Oil Centennial.

Forbes, a business magazine, has concentrated its July 1 issue on the oil industry's present state of fundamental change. In the editorial, the issue is discussed in relation to the early history and coming Centennial of Oil in Titusville. Colonel Drake spent $3,000 before striking oil while today a dry hole can cost as much as $5 million. The well was called "Drake's Folly." Now, one out of every five dollars invested in equity issues on the nation's stock exchanges is in oil stocks. The editorial concludes "in the midst of its very real problems, the oil industry itself can take heart in the fact that, like Titusville, it has survived one century of growth and can face the second with confidence."

The New York State Pharmacist's article in the June issue dealt an pharmacy's role in the early oil industry. One of Drake's first customers was Dr. Samuel Keir, a Pittsburgh druggist, who sold the oil as medicine. This, however, was not nearly large enough a market for Drake.

In 1860 he met George M. Mowbray, a chemist for the wholesale drug firm of Schieffelin Brothers and Company of New York City. Drake agreed to ship all the oil not already committed to existing customers to Schieffelin, who would sell the oil for a seven and one-half cent commission. The contract was for five years.

In 1860 Schieffelin employed Drake, who was then only a justice of the peace in Titusville, as its oil purchasing agent for approximately $3,000 a year.

More Publicity For Titusville On Celebration

Titusville Herald: From coast to coast, Titusville and facts relating to the drilling of the world's first oil well are being publicized.

The summer, 1958, issue of "News from Home" magazine, published by the Home Insurance Co. of New York City, contained a five-page spread entitled "Liquid Electricity... Oil Centennial."

Included with the feature article were 34 illustrations.

Among the 31 photographs, two etchings and map were pictures of Drake, Kier, "Uncle Billy" Smith and Silliman, and Rouseville, Pithole City, Triumph City, Pioneer, Petroleum Center, Funkville and Pleasantville during the oil boom days.

An unusual photograph in the magazine showed a model of an oil derrick paraded on Fifth Avenue in New York City in 1869—only 10 years after Drake struck oil.

The San Diego, Calif., Union recently published a lengthy article about Colonel Edwin L. Drake. It was entitled "The Madman of Titusville" and subtitled, "A Century of Progress Spearheaded by the Folly of Edwin Drake." The account of Drake's coming to Titusville and drilling the first well was written by Nelson Roberts Jr., the Union's auto writer.

The Mather photo of Drake standing in front of his well was included with the story.

Former Residents Hold Successful Outing in California Park

According to a letter from Louis J. Giegerich, one of the organizers of the annual Warren County picnic held in California, this year's event was a bit late in getting started, but when the crowd finally arrived, they had a wonderful time reminiscing about their former residence in Pennsylvania, and through many new faces were added, many old-time attendees also. The affair was held in Sycamore Park, Glen Echo, on Father's Day, and plans were made for next year's outing which will be held before school lets out, so as not to interfere with vacations. Mr. Giegerich stated that the weather was nice, but a bit on the warm side. Many who attended the get-together are not in the above picture.

Prepared by Pennsylvania Game Commission

Claims & Payments Decrease

Number of foxes and great-horned owls probated in Pennsylvania, on which Game Commission paid bounty during fiscal year ending May 31, fell below those for previous twelve months by these amounts: gray foxes 2002; red foxes 458; and great-horned owls 68. Because of the drop in valid claims during last fiscal year, bounty payment total was $10,180 lower than that of 1957-58.

Erie County was second in having largest number of red foxes bountied with 761; Bradford second for great-horned owls with 63.

In payments, Bradford ranked fourth with $3,543; Erie fifth with $3,515.

Granted Hunting Petitions
Following counties have filed legally acceptable fox hunting petitions which have been granted by Game Commission for 1959: Cambria, Erie, Fayette, Schuylkill and York.

In the counties which filed the petitions according to law foxes may be hunted with dogs day or night, except the days April 1 to May 30. This 60-day period is closed by law to such hunting with dogs for safety of young of wildlife.

Planting Year Program
Allegheny National Forest is included in Game Commission's program of planting for wildlife, of which much has already been accomplished this year.

Anticipating its Food and Cover development needs the Commission plans to utilize, all told, the following in 1959: 1,325 bushels of seed to be planted on approximately 5,000 acres of land; 893 tons fertilizer for 4,465 acres; and 561 tons of pulverized limestone for 1,780 acres. Properties which the seed, lime and fertilizer will be used for development of game food and cover include State game lands, farm-gate projects, propagation area, areas leased by the Commission, Allegheny National Forest, and State forest lands.

Trefoil will be established for deer pasture in hundred of acres of food plots which allocated in the remote mountainous areas. Trefoil provides an abundance of high quality late fall, early winter and spring food. Insects are attracted to the lush growth and are consumed in great numbers by wild turkeys and other game birds.

Rabbits and woodchucks also thrive in the food strips. In ringneck territory every effort is being directed toward providing safe nesting sites and winter ground cover. Strips of timothy or orchard grass with alfalfa on privately-owned properties open to hunting are being purchased by the wildlife agency.

Wheat will be seeded 2 to 4 weeks before normal fall seeding dates, approximately 3 bushels per acre, in order to produce additional deer pasture for autumn and winter. Generally, early the following spring, clover mixtures, etc., are seeded on top of the wheat. Oats, trefoil and clover mixtures usually are seeded early in spring.

Top dressing with fertilizer is underway. This practice is followed to feed the clovers and grasses in order to produce more food in the heavily pastured food plots for deer, also to provide additional ground cover for small game.

Pulverized limestone is applied in order to neutralize acid soil conditions so that clovers and grasses will thrive and produce more food and cover for wildlife.

Two varieties of dwarf field corn, which grow about 5 feet tall and have very heavy stalks, are being tried out. If, as reported, approximately 90% of this corn will stand up all winter (about 90% of the hybrids falls over) it should be excellent for wildlife.

Sport Shooting
Some outdoorsmen have enjoyed the sport and relaxation available through summer hunting trips. Others have yet to learn how much fun may be had with the scatter gun when rows in the wing are called within range, or with the varmint rifle in shooting wary, distant woodchucks. Both test the hunter's skills, provide exciting sport, and keep shooting eyes sharp for the coming hunting season. (While out for crows or chucks the hunter is required to wear a current hunting license.)

Right now is the time when crow hunting is at its best. The young are out of the nest and the adults are coming readily to a good call properly used. The cover of trees and other foliage, and dark or camouflage clothing are necessary to conceal the human from the sharp eyes of the large, black birds as they fly in.

Amateurs often drive the crows away and try to further "educate" the already wise birds so that even experienced hunters will have difficulty in calling them within reach of the shotgun. Quick, short notes on a call sound like the danger signal of the crow, and they scare the canny birds "into the next county." The newcomer to the game will profit from trips afield with someone experienced in calling, and there are good crow-calling records on the market. Practice imitating either will pay off.

The woodchuck, "whistle pig" or ground hog — whatever called — makes a challenging, cautious target. The experienced "chucker" locates one of the animal's burrows or choice feeding spots and patiently scans the area. He is usually armed with a scope-mounted varmint rifle and a good pair of binoculars. The knowing hunter is careful to remain still, knowing the quarry has keen vision even at great distance — and he prefers long-range shooting as a test of skill.

Farmers usually welcome chuck and crow hunters who are careful as to how and where they shoot. Sportsmen help to hold the little animals and crows to reasonable numbers in and near cultivated areas. This they consider only fair repayment for the privilege of hunting small game on farmlands in fall. Considerate sportsmen obtain permission from farmers on whose lands they wish to hunt for the first time. Though they have been told they will be welcome to return they will welcome the landowner as to where they will shoot, on every trip to the property.

Attract Many
Though the weather during the month of May was not too pleasant, Pymatuning Museum and Waterfowl Refuge area, in Crawford County, were visited by a large number of people. So reports Game Protector Raymond Sickles, adding: "Many groups of nature lovers such as Audubon clubs, the Gooselookers, Boy Scout Troops, and high school and college biology classes, came to enjoy seeing and to learn about wild waterfowl during May."

Kane Promoters Busily Engaged On New Industry

KANE—The original "Minute Men" of the Kane Area Industrial Development Corporation were called into action last week on the multi-phased preliminaries of probing a new industry—one of several which has emerged from committee stages.

Although no public information will be revealed until the project reaches the "definite" stages, it was made known that Kane holds the No. 1 spot—and that the industry will represent the greatest test in the history of this community.

As is traditional, the call for a meeting brought out all but one member of the original group—the absentee was a man who was many miles away on a business trip. The project was given a fine combing from every angle and its potential determined as worthy of every effort.

On the basis of the industry prospect, the KAIDC examined thoroughly the labor market, the growth potential of Kane, the status of industry at the present in Kane.

The report on local industry last night was a happy one—with initial KAIDC projects materializing beyond expectations and with good effect on local economy. Other existing industry continues on the move with the entire picture showing progress.

The KAIDC also reviewed housing and other facilities to be able to give a clear and completely true picture of Kane and the Kane area—and what there is to be offered.

Status of the prospective industry, as can be disclosed, indicates that a site has been approved by the company—one of the many in the Kane-Mt. Jewett-Ludlow scope of KAIDC. The president of the AA-1 rated company and other executives have been here on exploratory contacts and are completely satisfied with the local program.

Introducing Summer Y-Camp Personalities

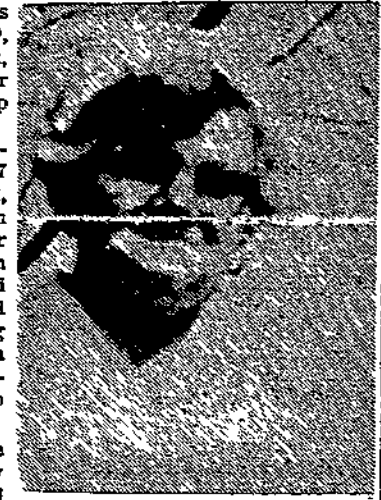

When the first bugle sounds at Camp Cornplanter July 19, Mrs. Minnie Vicini of Weldbank, pictured, will be returning for her third year as YMCA Camp Nurse.

Mrs. Vicini is a licensed practical nurse and boasts some 37 years of experience in the field, beginning at the age of 13 when she nursed her grandmother who was in ill health. A woman whose affable charm and warmth make her a natural confidante with the young campers, and tag her as a born Florence Nightingale. Mrs. Vicini will make the ideal "camp nurse".

Mrs. Vicini makes her home with a son and daughter-in-law and two small children, and she recalls happily that all her life she has specialized in outdoor living and camping expeditions with her own three boys, and now this same hobby carries over with the grandchildren. She loves going fishing with the children and enjoys cooking out with them.

She is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary 314 in Clearmont; a member of the Practical Nurses Association of Pennsylvania and Warren County Practical Nurses Association; a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, Warren County Historical Society, St. Clara's church in Clearmont, a National Granger, and a member of Diamond Grange Kitchen Band.

Mrs. Vicini also finds time to participate at the Russell Baby Clinic monthly, and does some amazing volunteer work for the Farm Colony at State Hospital, being responsible for entertainment for patients, and seeing that the supply of books and cards is always ample. A most charitable woman, Mrs. Vicini devotes her life to helping others, and seeing that they are more comfortable through her tender nursing care.

Along with this, Nurse Vicini finds time to garden, having one of the most outstanding flower gardens in the neighborhood.

At Camp Cornplanter, Mrs. Vicini will keep an individual chart on each camper and be on duty around the clock during the week. When asked to recall any major illness or injury in her past camping experience, Mrs. Vicini declared that no one had had more than a sunburn which needed little pampering. That's a marvelous record, and one of which Mrs. Vicini can be proud. She's looking forward to another good week with the boys at Camp Cornplanter.

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—The widow of a Delaware County judge must return to the state $47,568 of her husband's retirement benefits. The overpayment was attributed to a clerical error.

Mrs. Ida B. Brethrick received $108,165 from the state employee's retirement fund after the death of her husband, Arthur, last September. Her legal advisor noticed the overpayment and notified state officials.

Hose Company Finds Real Fire After False Run

WATERFORD — A false alarm answered by the Perry Highway Hose Company Sunday led to discovery of a blaze which destroyed a barn at the eight mile post on Route 97.

Perry Highway Chief George Gauthier said he saw smoke coming from the barn doors just after the fire trucks had returned from a false alarm in the same area. By the time the equipment was called back, however, the blaze was out of control.

The barn is owned by Kenneth Anderson, R. D. 2, Waterford, who reportedly is in California. Gauthier could give no estimate of loss until Anderson's return.

Cause of the fire has not been determined. "The barn was completely in flames within a couple of minutes," Gauthier said. "We had all equipment from both of our fire halls on the scene, but all we could do was keep the flames from spreading to other buildings on the farm."

The Stancliff Hose Company of Waterford also battled the fire.

Gauthier said there was no shortage of water. Firemen also used a pond on the farm for pumping.

No livestock was believed lost in the blaze. Part of the building reportedly was leased for horses, but all the animals were out in pasture.

Among the items destroyed were saddles, tractors, other farm equipment and a quantity of fresh hay.

Although the fire broke out late yesterday morning, firemen still were on the scene at dusk to keep flames from breaking out anew.

Astronauts Given Sampling Of What Is Ahead for Them

By ELTON C. FAY
LANGLEY RESEARCH CENTER, Va. (AP) — The nation's seven Mercury astronauts, sampling what lies ahead for them, watched a miniature space capsule glow white hot in thousands of degrees of roaring heat today.

It was part of a demonstration for visiting newsmen of the man-in-space program which the National Aeronautics and Space Administration is pressing "with utmost urgency" at its laboratories here.

The capsule was a model of those in which the astronauts are to ride into space orbit in 1961. The heating effect of air friction is only one of the problems being studied here in an effort to assure their safe return. That problem apparently has been solved.

The astronauts have watched this and similar space flight experiments for weeks as they prepare themselves for their first space excursions. They now know intimately all the problems — the 11,000 degrees of heat on the outside skin of their vehicles as they come flashing back into the earth's atmosphere, the devices intended to save them if something goes wrong, the mighty compressive "G" force of gravity from acceleration and deceleration.

As the test program now stands, NASA scientists will begin experimenting late this summer with the "Little Joe" rocket launcher — a squat cluster of solid fuel rockets designed for measuring the reliability of equipment, with test firings from Wallops Island, Va. Following this will come capsule re-entry experiments using the Army Redstone rocket, then moving into tests in which chimpanzees ride in the capsules. When the chimpanzees have "test flown" the capsule, the astronauts will be ready for manned flight — some time in 1961.

Johansson Got His Big Idea From Marciano

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Ingemar Johansson, the amateur, was a hero worshipper of Rocky Marciano.

The Rock was a puncher and the big Swedish kid who defeated sideburns, dressed like and somewhat resembled a large edition of Elvis Presley was taking opponents out with one swipe.

Johansson studied Marciano, fashioned his cyclonic attack after that of the Brockton Block Buster and embellished his footwork.

MARGIANO WAS JUST COMING into prominence in 1951, when Johansson first visited this country as an 18-year-old amateur who knocked out one Ernest Fann in the second round at the Chicago Stadium. Marciano knocked out Rex Layne that summer and gave poor old Joe Louis a dose of his own medicine in the fall.

Johansson got the moving pictures of every fight Marciano made from that date on, studied them intently.

Edwin Ahlqvist, the Göteborg publisher-promoter, brought Johansson to New York in the late summer of 1955 as a reward for a busy eight months, and the 22-year-old professional who worked out in Stillman's Gymnasium couldn't get enough of Marciano. The Rock knocked out Don Cockell that May and Archie Moore in September.

A DETROIT MANUFACTURER Marciano knew well took the old champion to Johansson at the Abbey Hotel, which Ahlqvist made his headquarters, three weeks before the Venturestone Viking put the slug on Floyd Patterson. Marciano suggested dinner at a little Italian restaurant on Third Avenue.

It was something to see Johansson strike a fighting pose in front of Marciano.

"Right about down," warned The Rock. "He'll counter to the body, you know."

"I got this from you, Rocky," said Johansson, "taking a short step forward. That's what you had beside the punch. You never gave the other guy a chance to get set. But you could carry the fight. I am by nature a counterpuncher, so I took your little half step backward, too. That gives it to me both ways and leaves the other guy off balance."

FROM THE OUTSET, AHLQVIST was impressed by Johansson's strength.

"In 1951, when he was 18, Axel Cadier was an Olympic wrestling champion," he recollected. "The boys got to Indian wrestling and Ingemar brought Cadier's arm down twice within four seconds."

"Ingemar gets mad quietly. While on an exhibition tour in 1954, Ingemar's right hand was infected and swollen. A burly butcher in a small town gripped it and kept squeezing as Ingemar begged him to let go. When he didn't, Ingemar simply twisted his arm and threw the husky butcher on his head."

St. Lawrence Seaway Cruise Planned in Fall

ERIE — Port Director Calvin E. Dingler has invited Western Pennsylvania and Northeastern Ohio residents to join in a St. Lawrence Seaway cruise scheduled to leave Erie about Sept. 8th.

The Erie sailing is contingent on securing a passenger load of 50 persons, Dingler said. He expressed confidence this could easily be done and said reservations should be made promptly.

The South American, belonging to the Chicago, Duluth and Georgian Bay Transit Co., will stop in Erie to pick up the passengers and also will return here after completing the trip to Montreal. The return would be on about Wednesday, Sept. 16th.

W. R. Wingate, district passenger agent for the Transit Co., said reservations should be handled through local travel agencies.

Dingler emphasized he was hopeful the cruise would attract reservations from through the Western Pennsylvania corridor.

Speaking of Sports

It was William Kormpates of New York City who came to Warren High School early in the fall of 1958 to show a few of the "tricks" in operating the Nissen Trampoline purchased by the school board for use in gymnastic instruction in WES. Kormpates, a former gymnast and now a high-ladder artist, is visiting in Warren. Bill is awaiting shows to open in a few days at which he is to appear. Kormpates, who was featured on these sports pages last week, met school personnel, including gym instructor Hal Miller.

Kormpates said Miller "is the only one" who seems to know the value of the gymnastic program for the youth fitness movement. The veteran gymnast was high in praise for Miller's program in Warren high featuring tumbling and gymnastics.

Women's Western Finds Rematch Of The 1958 Finals

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—A rematch of the 1958 finals is the main attraction in today's second round of the Women's Western Amateur golf tournament at Exmoor Country Club.

Barbara McIntire of Jupiter, Fla., 24-year-old real estate agent, faces her 1953 Curtis Cup teammate, Anne Quast of Everett, Wash.

Miss McIntire defeated Miss Quast, 21-year-old Stanford graduate, on the 35th hole in their battle for the crown last year.

Miss McIntire was 2-over-par for the distance needed to trounce Sandra Spuzich, Indianapolis, 5 and 5 in Tuesday's first round. Miss Quast moved up with close-to-par shooting by blasting Frances Rich Bainbridge, Ga., 8 and 7.

Other 1958 Curtis Cup players remaining in the field of 16 survivors were Mrs. Ann Casey Johnson, Mason City, Iowa; Polly Riley, Fort Worth, and Jo Anne Gunderson, Seattle.

Whitey Ford East Mat For Giants' Mays

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"That Mays," muttered southpaw Whitey Ford after Tuesday's All-Star game. "He hits me like he owns me."

The Yankee pitcher referred to Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants who tripled off him in the eighth to drive in the winning run for the Nationals.

"Mays has batted against me four times now in All-Star games and hit me each time," Ford said.

Bantamweight Crown at Stake In L. A. Tonight

By BUD MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Broad-shouldered Alphonse Halimi of France risks his world bantamweight crown in a 15-round fight tonight with the No. 1 contender, Jose Becerra of Mexico.

The 27-year-old French Algerian remained the betting favorite at 2-1 or 8-5.

The scrap goes on at 7 o'clock, Pacific Daylight Time, and will be televised nationally via ABC, with Southern California screened out. There will be no radio broadcast.

Promoter Cal Eaton predicted a crowd of 15,000 or more would pay upward of $150,000 to see the match, which serves as a kickoff sports event for Los Angeles' new 6 million dollar Memorial sports arena.

"I am ready to fight one to 15 rounds. I fully expect to win," said Halimi.

"I promised my people and the president of Mexico I would win the championship," said the 23-year-old contender with the aid of an interpreter.

Halimi, in the second defense of the title he won April 1, 1957, will pick up a guarantee of $65,000. If he loses, he has a guarantee for a rematch within 90 days.

Becerra settled for $20,000 for a shot at the championship.

The fight will be scored on a 10-point per round basis.

Haney Says Same Winning Lineup Will Start in the 2nd Game at Los Angeles

By JOE REICHEL
Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Manager Fred Haney plans to use the same starting lineup in next month's All Star game in Los Angeles as the one which defeated the American League 5-4 for the National League's first victory in three years.

The American League squad, however, may have a few new faces. That was losing manager Casey Stengel's ill-concealed threat Tuesday after his athletes left the game slip out of their hands after coming from behind with a three-run rally in the top of the eighth inning.

"I got four or five fellows in mind I'd like to have for the next game," he said. "And I'm going to use a couple of them, too. And nobody is going to pick 'em but me."

Stengel didn't single out any player for the blame in the defeat but he made no bones about the fact that he wasn't satisfied with the pitching of Whitey Ford, his own star left-hander on the Yankees.

Ford was on the mound when the Nationals roared back with two runs in the bottom half of the eighth to overcome a 4-3 deficit.

Stengel also might have felt that if Mickey Mantle, his limping slugger, had been playing in center field, he might have caught up with Willie Mays' booming triple in the eighth that drove in the payoff run.

The ball, which Mays later admitted was the hardest he has hit all season, sailed over Harvey Kuenn's head and bounced against the right-center field wall. Kuenn, Detroit's right fielder, had replaced Al Kaline in center. Mantle, who normally would have played there, was in right field because of a sprained ankle.

"They, the Nationals, played worse than we did," he said. "But they won and that's what counts. Those guys were lucky we didn't score more runs in the eighth, or else they were just playing with us when they let us fill the bases twice. It took a great catch to beat us."

Haney, on the other hand, had nothing but praise for all his players. The little Milwaukee skipper, happy as a lark over his team's come-from-behind triumph, hailed his first win in two All-Star managerial efforts, a team victory.

Haney declined to take any credit even though it was his strategy that set up the tying run in the eighth inning when the Nationals scored twice to overcome a 4-3 deficit. Kenny Boyer of St. Louis, batting for winning pitcher Johnny Antonelli, singled to open it. Haney sent up Pittsburgh's Dick Groat to hit for Eddie Matthews although the National League's home run leader had socked a four-bagger in the opening inning. Groat laid down a neat sacrifice and Aaron came through with a sharp single to score Boyer with the tying run.

Mays then unloaded his triple, scoring Aaron with the payoff run.

Buffalo Raceway

A $2,000 Class AA Pace named The Zenith for Joseph A. Strauss Night at Buffalo Raceway will occupy tonight's feature spot carded as the eighth race.

An 8-horse field will put on the main event expected to produce another mile for the "under 2:05" list growing at Hamburg.

Sea Pirate, most improved pacer in Western New York since 158, has been designated morning line favorite from p. p. 3 with Don Corneau driving the Rochester horse owned by Ward Maurer. Sea Pirate has been competing against fastest this season.

Cash Adios, a 3-time stake winner this year, will bow into 1959 Hamburg competition as opening choice at the rail in seventh race, a $1,200 Class B Pace.

Post time for the first race is 8:30; daily double windows close at 8:15.

Hagge, Berg Paddle 71s in Indiana Play

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—Marlene Bauer Hagge of Delray Beach, Fla., and Patty Berg of West Chicago, Ill., carried 71s into the second half of the Hoosier celebrities golf tournament today.

The two leaders matched men's par Tuesday over the 6,370-yard Fort Wayne Country Club course. Marlene shot 38-38. Patty had a steady 35-36.

For the final round, the lady sports teamed up with Midwest sports figures and amateurs in a best-ball handicap event.

Fay Crocker of Wichita, Kan., was one stroke back of the first-round leaders with 35-37-72. Joyce Ziske of Milwaukee and Bonnie Randolph of Columbus, Ohio, tied for fourth at 73.

Dressing Room Chatter

By JOE BRADIS
PITTSBURGH (AP)—Take it from the old professor, Casey Stengel. There'll be some changes made for the next All-Star baseball game at Los Angeles Aug. 3.

"Just say I've got my eye on four or five guys," grunted the New York Yankees manager after his American League All-Star dropped a 5-4 decision to the National League Tuesday at Forbes Field.

"I was satisfied with the team and it was a good game," said Casey. "But when you lose you gotta make some changes. I'll let you know later."

"There's nothing to regret. They (the Nationals) played worse than we did. But they won and that's what counts. If Willie Mays doesn't hit that triple, we'll there's a lot of things we could have done."

Mays booming triple over the head of Detroit's Harvey Kuenn in right center scored Hank Aaron with the winning run in the eighth inning.

"He (Mays) hit a fast ball," said Whitey Ford of the Yankees, the losing pitcher. "I wasn't tired, I just didn't pitch well."

Ken Boyer of St. Louis led off against Ford with a pinch single, moved to second on Dick Groat's sacrifice. Aaron then bounced a single scoring Boyer. Then came Willie with his smash near the 438-foot mark to score Aaron.

Good strategy? Fred Haney of Milwaukee, manager of the National League, laughed.

"Well, when you're a baseball manager and your strategy works, you are a genius. When it doesn't work, look out."

"It was a team victory all the way. It's difficult to single out any one player, although there was some fine pitching and defensive work."

Gerarde Drops First Fight, 2-1

A split-decision loss, booed by fans, was given Tom Gerarde Tuesday evening in Miami Beach Auditorium in Miami Beach, Fla.

Gerarde, formerly of Tiona before joining the professional ranks, dropped the 2-1 decision to Luther Brown of Mississippi. Gerarde weighed a light 172, Brown 170.

Rocky took blunt of the punches on his shoulders and chest. He came out of the fight unmarked.

Brown crowded Tom, making it difficult for Gerarde to get punches flying.

This was Tom's third fight as a pro. He won his first two scraps in Miami.

Gerarde's 172-pound weight was considerably less than he's accustomed to fighting with. The former student of Joe Fazio usually entered the ring at about the 180-pound bracket.

It is believed that his handlers, Angelo Dundee and George Rothstein, are trimming The Rock down to middleweight (160 lbs.) class where there is an abundance of fighters for competition.

Major Leagues Ready To Return to Action Thursday

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the first leg of the All-Star series out of the way, major league baseball now gets back to the pennant races, jumping into a swift schedule that could change the scrambles almost overnight.

The free-for-all gets started again Thursday night, although Boston's last-place Red Sox play at New York tonight in a make-up game on the American League schedule.

The National League, a 5-4 winner over the AL in the first All-Star game of the season Tuesday—the second is at Los Angeles, August 3—picks up the pennant race with Milwaukee's Braves in first place by .003 percentage points over San Francisco and a half-game over third-place Los Angeles.

The Braves, who had a one-game lead over the Giants—at this stage while winning their second straight flag last season, resume play with a three-game series at Milwaukee against the Dodgers, then play two against the Giants.

San Francisco plays three at Cincinnati before moving into Milwaukee. The Dodgers have two with the Reds, struggling in seventh with Manager Mayo Smith rumored on the way out, after leaving the Braves.

Fourth-place Pittsburgh, 3½ games out of first, is at home for three games with fifth-place Chicago and two with six-place St. Louis.

The immediate American League schedule is just as hot. First-place Cleveland, ahead by two games, is at Chicago for two games with the second-place White Sox Thursday and Friday. The Indians then are at home for a three-game series with Detroit—then play four games at New York.

The White Sox play three with Kansas City after the Indians' game, then have three at Boston and four at New York.

The Yankees, five games behind in fourth place, compared to an 11-game lead at this time a year ago, play six games with the Red Sox in six days, five at Boston. The Red Sox put an end to their skid at seven games by sweeping a pair at Baltimore Sunday, giving new manager Bill Jurges a 2-1 record.

That sweep dropped third-place Baltimore 4½ games behind. The Orioles play five games at Washington before returning home for four games with Kansas City and four with the Tigers.

Detroit, still fifth after dropping three in a row to Cleveland, now trail by six. The Tigers play three with the As before facing the Indians again this weekend.

Braves Awaiting Return of Mending Logan and Buhl

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Two of the Milwaukee Braves' prized crickets — shortstop Johnny Logan and pitcher Bob Buhl — are on the mend.

Both took first workouts Tuesday since recent injuries. Logan said he expects to be ready for parttime duty this week and right-hander Buhl indicated he'll be ready in about two weeks.

The progress reports come as good news for the defending National League champions who have only a shaky three percentage point on first place as they prepare to resume league activity Thursday night against the pressing Los Angeles Dodgers, only a half-game back in third place. The game opens a five-game home stand for the Braves.

Logan is having his best season at the plate, hitting .332, second only among the Braves to Hank Aaron who leads the majors with a .370 average. Buhl is 6-5 for the season.

Dozen Girls In Godiva Stakes to Be Run Saturday

MOUSFORD, England (AP) — Half a dozen daring girls had an undress rehearsal Sunday for Britain's craziest horse race of the year—the Lady Godiva Stakes. Post time: midnight next Saturday.

The race is named for the legendary lady of Coventry who was the first gal to put all she had on a horse.

As staged by the South Berkshire Hunt, the race will feature girl jockeys in flesh-colored swimsuits and nylon nighties, which is considerably more than Lady Godiva sported on her trot through town some 900 years ago.

Out rehearsing Sunday, Susan Capstick, 21, daughter of a dairy director, patted her straw wig, looked at her figure-flattering swimsuit, and giggled: "I don't know what Daddy will say."

Vivacious Clare Bryant, 17, was wearing a swimsuit too. "I did consider riding nude," she said, "but I've had second thoughts."

Ann Phillips, wife of the master of the hunt, was wearing a white nylon negligee over briefs and bra. Clare Venables, 19, chose a pink shortie nightie.

Among other items at the fund-raising meeting will be a genuine sleepshirts for men wearing nightgowns and tasseled nightcaps. They will race through the woods to a distant church steeple and back to the start, jumping natural obstacles along the way.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

NEW YORK (AP) — Continental Oil Co. plans to install a three million dollar catalytic reforming unit, with a daily capacity of 11,000 barrels, at Lake Charles, La.

PAINTED POST, N. Y. (AP) — The Ingersoll Rand Co. is moving its domestic air compressor manufacturing to this Steuben County community from Phillipsburg, N. J. plant. Work at the New Jersey plant will be discontinued, a company spokesman said. He said employment would be affected at the plant here which presently employs 2,000 workers. No specific figures were available.

NEW YORK (AP) — Harold Roth, president of U. S. Hoffman Machinery Corp., said several subsidiaries of the company received government contracts totaling $3,327,650 in the electronic, nuclear and ordnance fields.

NEW YORK (AP) — Failures among retailers of apparel and accessories, dry goods and general merchandise increased 17 per cent in number and 41 per cent in liabilities in June 1953 as compared with last year, the credit clearing house of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., reported.

NEW YORK (AP) — American Airlines said Monday it will start converting its jet fleet to Pratt & Whitney turbofan engines next year. The line said the new engines will be more powerful and economical to operate.

NEW YORK (AP) — Steel production last week totaled 2,215,000 tons as mills operated at 78.2 per cent of capacity, the American Iron and Steel Institute reported Monday. Mills have scheduled operations this week at 83.2 per cent of capacity, sufficient to turn out 2,357,000 tons of steel. A year ago production was 1,442,000 tons.

DETROIT (AP) — The Fourth of July holiday weekend was reflected by a drop in auto industry production. U. S. automakers produced 108,719 units last week compared to 129,150 in the previous week as assembly operations were curtailed toward the end of the week. The auto industry thus far this year has produced 3,345,404 cars, a sharp increase over the 2,267,601 units produced in the same period last year. Industry observers report production figures thus far support the belief the industry will achieve a 6½ million year.

King Jordan: "I Can Whip Him" (Moyer)

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Champion Don Jordan says he's certain of victory in his 15-round welterweight title fight with young Denny Moyer here Friday night.

"I'm not underestimating Moyer at all," the 25-year-old champion who fights out of Los Angeles said. "But I positively believe that I can whip him."

Jordan, who won the title from Virgil Atkins eight months ago, has a 45-11 record. Moyer, 19, has won all 20 of his professional fights.

The fight will be carried by NBC starting at 10 p. m. EDT.

million dollars would be realized for the biennium, by revenue department estimates.

However, various items in the package appear in the doubtful category.

For instance, Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Senate president pro tempore, has announced his opposition to the personal property tax, a 55-million-dollar item. Sen. Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster), is against the proposed tobacco products tax, which would produce an estimated 15 million in the biennium. Tax attorneys have said the 12 million dollar increase in the bank shares tax would be illegal without a corresponding increase in the personal property tax. The 37 million dollar tax on packaged sales of beer and liquor has been defeated once in the House.

the change is made this year. As the Senate resumed work on the measure today it carried $3,543,320,000 against the $3,909,400,000 Eisenhower asked and the $3,542,600,000 voted by the House.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) won acceptance of an amendment to authorize the President to spend up to two million dollars for international health projects.

Forty Democrats joined with 12 Republicans to cut military aid by 300 million dollars, with only 19 Democrats joining 22 Republicans in opposing it.

Forty-one Democrats joined eight Republicans in voting the 83 1/2 million dollar cut in defense supports with 18 Democrats and 25 Republicans backing the President.

continue here today. McDonald's announcement Tuesday that he had been in Pittsburgh conferring with Nixon dispelled a two-day mystery about his absence from the stalemated contract talks here.

The union chief said he told Nixon the steel bargaining has gotten nowhere and that, as things stood, there was no chance of a new contract extension.

Present agreements expire at midnight July 14. That's when a two-week extension inspired by Eisenhower runs out. McDonald said that unless contract talks develop considerably he will recommend a strike to the union's wage-policy committee.

K. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, was obviously piqued at McDonald's journey to see Nixon, who was in Pittsburgh to attend the All-Star baseball game. The industry has stood firm on its intent to give the half million steelworkers in the basic producing industry nothing more than has been contained in the expiring contracts. Even more, the companies have insisted on contract modifications.

McDonald has called for a substantial boost in wages — now averaging $3.10 an hour — plus pension and other concessions. He says industry profits warrant the changes without any price boosts.

Nixon Available For Penn'a Campaigning

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Allegheny county Republican leaders say Vice President Richard Nixon has told them he will be available for at least one public appearance in Pennsylvania during the November election campaign. GOP spokesmen said Nixon during his visit here for the All-Star baseball game, declared details of his appearance would be handled by chairman George E. Bloom and the State Republican Committee.

Democrats Keep Wide Step From GOP New Registrants

Warren county Democrats have added 82 more new voters to the party since the primary election in May than the Republican crew.

This was revealed today in Voter Registration office of the Court House where tallies are made each week on new voters, deaths, movings and total party registration.

Effortful campaigning by Democrats has brought the party fruitful results in new registration drive.

Latest figures show 107 new registered Democrats to 25

Republicans, 4 Nonpartisan and 1 Prohibitionist. These 133 new voters have signed since May 25. This gives an average of 15 new party voters each week for the Democrats. A total of 18,227 votes are eligible to be cast in Warren county. Broken down according to parties, Republicans hold a 6,094 eligible-voter edge over the Democrats. Totaled voters as of last Monday were Republican 11,980; Democratic 5,886; Nonpartisan 255; Prohibitionist 105; and Socialist 1.

Driver Involved In Reading Crash Cited

POITTSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Walter E. Williams, 54, of Reading, driver of a tractor-trailer involved in a propane gas truck explosion which took 11 lives has been held for September grand jury action on an involuntary manslaughter charge.

Williams was cited Tuesday on 11 counts of involuntary manslaughter before Alderman William J. Powell. He waived a hearing and was released in $1,500 bail. Williams' tractor-trailer rammed into the rear of a propane gas truck last June 2 on a highway near Schuikill Haven, Pa., about 90 miles northwest of Philadelphia. A fire and an explosion followed, killing a fireman and 10 spectators.

Williams was injured in the blast. His ailing wife died less than a week after the tragedy.

Things Looking Up For Parents of Triplets

SOUTHEAST, N.C. (AP) — Things are looking up for tenacious farmer Nathan Miller and his family. They'll be on the way to greener pastures next week.

Miller, 55, said recently after his 35-year-old wife gave birth to triplet girls that they might have to offer the babies for adoption because of money problems. Miller made only $25 a week.

Tuesday, Miller accepted a $200-a-month job on an egg farm near Charlotte, N.C. The family will have a house rent free.

Pug to Replace Needle Nose on the X15 Rocket

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — When the X15 rocket plane blasts off towards the fringes of space it will have a pug, not a needle nose.

A round ball that replaces the lance-like nose of the sweeping experimental ship was turned over to this test facility Tuesday.

The new nose is instrumented so the pilot can determine immediately any pitching or side-slipping that could create intense friction and burn up the ship as it tries to enter the earth's atmosphere.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — About five months before Admiral Peary reached the North Pole in 1899, someone checked the book "Castle Blair," out of the Public Library. Public Library.

It was returned Tuesday, more than 50 years overdue. It was placed in a collection chute at a branch library. Library officials said the book, overdue since Jan. 4, 1909, would have carried a $472.50 fine.

McSorley Quits Post and Furman To Be Successor

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Lawrence today accepted the resignation of G. Franklin McSorley of Pittsburgh as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission.

Lawrence immediately said he would appoint former Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman to fill McSorley's unexpired term. He said the nomination would be sent to the Senate on Monday for confirmation.

McSorley was reinstated as chairman of the commission June 2 after he was cleared on charges of misconduct in office.

Former Governor Leader had suspended McSorley as chairman Jan. 23, 1957, following McSorley's indictment by a Dauphin County grand jury.

The re-instatement followed a Superior Court ruling which upset an earlier conviction on the charges. McSorley had been accused of illegally assigning a Turnpike Commission chauffeur to former Commissioner T. J. Evans, Coaldale, after Evans had left the state post.

Segregation interferes with equal opportunity in economic and political fields, it is—in his opinion—morally wrong.

Eisenhower, in his reply, made no mention of segregation in education.

KHRUSHCHEV — Eisenhower said he does not regard a visit to this country by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev as beyond the realm of possibility. He spoke, however, of the difficulties he said such a visit would present if the purpose were talks regarding international problems.

HARRIMAN — The President hit indirectly at Khrushchev in expressing amazement—if not disbelief—regarding remarks attributed to the Soviet Premier by former Gov. W. Averell Harriman of New York.

A reporter said that Harriman, in an article in Life magazine about his recent talk with Khrushchev, quoted the Soviet leader as saying that if the United States wants war, "you can have it."

Asked what he thinks about that kind of talk, Eisenhower replied that he believes responsible people should not indulge in any sort of talk which could be regarded as amounting to an ultimatum or threat.

DE GAULLE — As for the U.S. announcement today that this country is pulling three fighter-bomber wings out of France, Eisenhower said he and French President Charles de Gaulle have long agreed that when they can get together they will talk over all differences between the two countries.

VETOES — Eisenhower said that when he vetoes legislation he is thinking of the good of the United States.

He made that remark when a reporter asked about the possibility his vetoes may boomerang and place him in a negative light so far as the public is concerned.

After saying he acts always for what he considers the public good, Eisenhower remarked that he is not running for any public office. He said that when his second term ends in 18 months he will be through with politics.

He added, he never uses his veto power lightly and he doesn't enjoy saying that specific legislation is bad.

GENEVA — Eisenhower said Secretary of State Christian A. Herter will be taking no new formula back to Geneva when the foreign ministers conference resumes there Monday.

NIXON — If he personally became disabled, Eisenhower said, Vice President Richard M. Nixon would take over all of his government responsibilities — including the responsibility for deciding about any use of atomic weapons.

Eisenhower said he doesn't see how the commander in chief of the armed forces could be denied the right to delegate whatever responsibilities are needed in such cases.

Firing at J. & L. To Be Protested by Union
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Officials of United Steelworkers Local 1211 say they will protest through a grievance procedure the firing of eight employees by the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.
Seven men and a woman were fired Tuesday for participating in a unauthorized work stoppage at the firm's Aliquippa works last week.
The company said the employees engaged in activities forbidden by the contract between it and the union. None of the employees was identified.
The work stoppage idled the plant for about 24 hours last July 1 and 2. The employees were protesting an extension of the master contract between the steel industry and the union. From July 1 to July 14.

Gooddard Is Presented Distinguished Award
HARRISBURG (AP) — Maurice K. Gooddard, secretary of Forests and Waters, today received a high Army award in recognition of his cooperation with the Army Corps of Engineers on flood prevention and navigation work in Pennsylvania.
He was presented the Army's second highest distinguished public service award by Col. Stanley T. B. Johnson, district engineer for the Engineers' Baltimore District.
The presentation was made in Gov. Lawrence's office on behalf of Army Secretary Wilbur M. Brucker and Gen. E. C. Itchner, chief of engineers.

Police Chief on Stand In Butler Murder Case
BUTLER, Pa. (AP) — A police chief has testified that 19-year-old Richard Alwine admitted killing Frank McMar, a Butler grocer.
Chief Nick Nohack of Butler told Butler County Criminal Court last night that Alwine admitted the slaying in a statement to police. Nohack said Alwine later acknowledged that statement as true when it was read back to him in the presence of four newsmen.
DeMar, 68, was found stabbed to death in his store last Nov. 24.
In other testimony, William Mortimer, who lived near the store, and Timothy Casey, 13, of Butler, R.D. 5, both pointed out Alwine as the person they saw in DeMar's store shortly before the grocer was found slain.
Prosecuting Atty. Donald E. Doerr asked for a first degree murder verdict.

DROWNS WHILE WADING
ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — An 18-year-old partially-paralyzed youth from nearby Chapman drowned while wading in a pond on a farm in Heidelberg Twp. Monday.
Richard Kramer, one of 14 children of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Kramer, apparently lost his footing on a ledge and went down in about eight feet of water. He was unable to swim, authorities said.

Wrightsville
WRIGHTSVILLE—The Community church Sunday school picnic will be held Sunday at the Luther Johnson camp, with dinner at one o'clock. The evening service will be held there, also.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hopkins and sons, Airman Second Class Howard and Wayne, of Falconer, were Sunday visitors of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Durlin. The Hopkins family has just returned from a week's vacation at Maxwell Air Force Base at Montgomery, Ala., where their son is stationed, and he accompanied them home. They also enjoyed a tour south to Pensacola and Panama City, Fla., along the ocean.
Other callers at the Durlin home have been Mr. and Mrs. Robert Durlin and family, Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Houghwot and daughter, Vanessa, of Falconer; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Durbin and children, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hallgren, Wrightsville.
Recent callers at the John Thompson home have been Eva Crouch, Willow Creek; Dr. and Mrs. Phillips, of Buffalo and Florida; Mrs. Lou Price and Harold Nourse, Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Danielson, Tilda Isaacson, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Allen. The Thompsons were Youngsville visitors Monday.
Fourth of July visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Faust were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hall and daughter, Natalie, of Jackson, Mich.; C. L. Faust, Pittsburgh; Marian, Alma and Alice Faust and Julie Waid, Meadville; Marian and Fleda Anderson and Vern Hall, Jamestown.
Bessie Boardman, North Warren, was a caller at the home of her brother, Donovan Boardman, and family.

New Undersea Device Has Preliminary Dives
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Navy officials said today that preliminary dives of the bathyscaphe Trieste have convinced them that it is the forerunner of undersea devices that will carry explorers to the earth's last great unknown frontier.
Eight preliminary dives by the Trieste in this area, the deepest 4,000 feet, have started a program that is aimed at giving man direct information about the three-fourths of the earth's surface covered by the oceans.
Capt. John M. Phelps, commanding officer and director of the Naval Electronics Laboratory, said the program was so vast that it would take much time and money to carry it through.
But he and Dr. Andreas B. Reiznitzer, oceanographer in charge of the Trieste operations expressed confidence that a good start had been made.
